

Cover Letter

Dear Recruiter,

I am writing this letter because of my strong interest in obtaining Solution Specialist position. Currently, I am employed as Software Quality Analyst at Transfinder where I also work on development as well automation of software.

I am interested in this position because, I always wanted to be a developer since I started using computer. I find it extremely exhilarating to create solutions that are useful to advance humanity in some way. In the current technology oriented world, being a Software Engineer and Quality Analyst, I have a powerful capability to use towards the development as well as testing of new software. Being able to make even a small impact goes a long way and I aspire to be part of this journey in any form I can. Also, I have been in a Software Quality Analyst for the past year or so. Throughout this, I have seen and been a part of the development life cycle very closely, even to the extent of doing development work. I have been working on development and automation from the past couple of months.

As you can see from my enclosed resume, I have graduated with Master's degree in computer Science from State University of New York, Albany. My area of specialization is Back-end/Front-end developing and testing. I also worked as an intern at Information Technology and Services, Department of New York State during my master's. I also worked on a research project under graduate professor as a developer. My academic work experience has provided me with skills for better understanding of Computer Science in this specialization. Working with diverse bodies of talent at multiple companies also provided me ability to work with culturally diverse population. My experience from academic group projects has honed my communication skills and taught me valuable lessons in collaboration and initiation. I believe that my skills, knowledge and academic training allow me to contribute to your organization.

You may reach me at the E-mail address 'meetshah51245@gmail.com' and telephone number '203-683-8637'. I will be happy to make myself available for an interview to further discuss my background, qualifications, experience and interests.

Sincerely,
Meet Shah
